THE ALL-NATURAL HORMONE SUPPLEMENT FOR WOMEN†

XeraFem™ is an all-new approach to female estrogen and hormone balance. XeraFem™ nutritionally rejuvenates the tissues and systems that are responsible for hormone production and promotes better health and hormone-producing activity.†

BENEFITS OF XERAFEM™

As women get older, they require specific nutrients to support individual needs. Unfortunately, women have resorted to consuming unnatural hormone replacement supplements that come with a laundry list of side effects; which can do more harm than good. Women need all-natural nutrients that will help support healthy hormone production and balance. XeraFem™ contains all-natural vitamins, minerals and botanicals; providing healthy hormonal support for women, while benefiting their overall well-being.†

XeraFem™ was specifically-formulated to provide women with the nutrients they need for estrogen and hormonal balance. It nutritionally rejuvenates the tissues and systems that are responsible for hormone production and promotes better health and hormone-producing activity without the use of risky hormone replacement therapy. The wide-range of nutrients found in XeraFem™ will provide women with support for natural energy production, healthy sexual function, menstrual comfort, defense against oxidative stresses of aging and more.†
